

Criminology in the Millennium

Race, Gender and the Criminal Justice Process

CONFERENCE MMVII

*Day Conference
– Friday 22 June
2007, St. Alban's
Centre, London
EC1*

– more details overleaf

Criminology in the Millennium's conferences on the theme 'Race, Gender and the Criminal Justice Process' have established a reputation for providing a public forum for the discussion of sensitive topics - and encouraging a frank and open exchange of views on the issues being discussed. With topics including domestic violence, the impact of parental mental illness on children with special reference to black people, gender duty and women offenders, issues around black on black violence and resettlement needs of black women prisoners, this June's conference will be no different.

◆ The Impact of parental mental illness on children with special reference to black people

Dr Dele Olajide, Consultant Psychiatrist, UK

◆ Issues around Black on Black Violence

Martin Glynn, Independent Criminologist, UK

◆ Gender Duty and Women Offenders

Joanna Trickey, London Resettlement team, UK

◆ Black and Minority Women and Domestic Violence

Derya Yildirim, Project Co-ordinator, Refugee Community Outreach Project, UK

◆ Resettlement Needs of Black Women Prisoners

Vickie Michael-Dick, Director, Angel International GB, UK
